

Transform your Church or Workplace Community Host a Change Agent Weekend

Let's face it. We are losing our culture. We are the proverbial frog in the kettle and the water is heating up ... and we don't even know it. What we hold dear will be gone if there is not a remnant willing to stand in the gap.

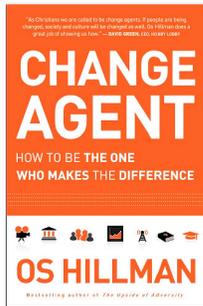

Our nation is moving further and further away from what has made our nation great. Our leadership is turning its back on the spiritual foundations that have made us a world power. We are quickly moving the way of Europe – a completely secular society without God being a part of the public discourse. Something must be done.

Our Hope is in God and its remnant

Our hope is in God who is faithful to respond to the prayers and obedience of his remnant people. Transformed people transform culture. It is a simple truth, but often hard to accomplish. We CAN turn things around with a small group of people. We know this from history. Henry Blackaby said he believed the only place we can hope to see change is through men and women in the workplace. That is the only place we see any leadership today. I agree.

But it starts with each of us.

The Change Agent Weekend Workshop is based upon Os Hillman’s best-selling book, Change Agent: Engaging your passion to be the one who makes a difference which has been endorsed by leaders across country. Os has a deep passion to see leaders emerge who can cause a tipping point from the direction our nation is currently heading.

The weekend workshop helps believers become a catalyst to be salt and light in their culture. It is a life-changing Friday night and Saturday experience. It includes 7 in-depth teaching sessions by Os Hillman with discussion times and Q&A. Os has developed smaller books based on each of the core sessions that are ideal for small group studies after the workshop. Steve Fedyski, CEO of Pinnacle Forum says, “Change Agent is a book I recommend to all of our Pinnacle Partners because it provides a blueprint for culture change.”

Here are just a few comments from those who have attended. We have many more video testimonies on our website.

“All the information I received in this course was pivotal in confirming God’s call on my life. A lot of times we think we are inconsequential and that we cannot do anything to change our culture. I know that is a lie from the enemy. Being here confirmed that ‘little ole me’ can go out and make a difference in the world.”

– Sheila Hart, Los Angeles

“After going through the Change Agent weekend I realized I had to become a ‘free agent’ before I could become a change agent.” – Scotland Alumni

During this workshop attendees will learn:

- The life-changing processes that God uses to raise His change agents
- Clarity on the reasons why God made you and your unique purpose

Do you really believe God loves you? Do you live as a son or daughter or a slave? Many believers think they are loved by God, but actually live their lives in a way that indicates they do not really believe it. Understanding how to relate to our Heavenly Father reveals how we will operate in the marketplace.
