

Revit Standards Check List

If you need help with Revit training or implementation, feel free to give us a call at CADtech Seminars, LLC. We may be able to have your training reimbursed through the State's SBET program. For more information on our services, please visit our web site at autocadtraining.com or CADuniversity.com

Tags

- Elevations marks
- Section marks
- Detail bubbles
- Callouts
- Match line callouts
- Leader Arrows
- text leaders (create arrowhead, assign by type in text type)
- tag leader arrows
- Dimension families and types

Text

- Simplex and romans are problematic find another font to replace these.
- Create text types in the office template

Schedules

- Create working schedules
- Create plotting schedules for all schedules used by the office in the template

Views and Sheets

- Create typical levels
- Create standard views
- Create office title blocks
- Create/edit shared parameters file for title blocks
- Create a few typical sheets
- Create a few "temporary plotting sheets"
- Create typical view templates
- Create Browser Organization

Family Creation

Establish minimal set of working families

Establish a routine for migration of families from project to office library

Establish a Naming Convention

Links

DWG links

Linked Drawing files

Linked with colors preserved vs. colors as black.

Miscellaneous

Phasing

Patterns

Plotting

Lineweights

Annotation

Color

Gray Scales

Test on ALL plotters and printers

Large format full size

Large Format, half size

8.5 X 11

11 x 17

Files

(outside of the template file)

Export layer Text file

Import Lineweights text file

Revit INI file

Revit keyboard shortcuts

Shared Parameters file

File structure for projects

Family Creation, storage and standards

Family transition from project to office library