

Post Test and Evaluation Tool for Nurse Patient Relationship Webinar

POST TEST

Identify whether the following statements are True or False.

1. It is important for the nurse to be aware of the stigmatizing impact of psychiatric illnesses. TRUE OR FALSE
2. Psychiatric illnesses impact the famous as well as the ordinary person. TRUE OR FALSE
3. The role of the psychiatric nurse involves the therapeutic use of self and the nurse's ability to set limits. TRUE OR FALSE
4. In a therapeutic relationship the nurse guides the conversation in a purposeful manner. TRUE OR FALSE
5. In a social relationship there is equal give and take between the participants. TRUE OR FALSE
6. Self-exploration is most important for the patient and not so important for the nurse. TRUE OR FALSE
7. Giving false reassurance is never a good thing for the nurse to offer any patient. TRUE OR FALSE
8. CBT is sometimes used in psychiatric home care in an effort to help the patient think in a reality based fashion. TRUE OR FALSE
9. The nurse is responsible for setting limits in the relationship, i.e. keeping to the prescribed time of the visit. TRUE OR FALSE
10. In a therapeutic relationship giving advice is not a positive way of communicating with the patient. TRUE OR FALSE

ANSWER KEY:

1. True
2. True
3. True
4. True
5. True
6. False
7. True
8. True
9. True
10. True