

- The surety of our inheritance (Heb 10:34) –
- The fellowship of the saints (Heb 12:1) –
- The good example of others (Heb 13:7) –
- The bad example of others (1 Cor 10:6) –
- We were created for good works (Eph 2:10) –
- God is the master and we are his servants (Luke 17:10) –
- The fear of the Lord (2 Cor 5:11) –
- The love of the Lord (1 John 4:11) –
- To make God manifest (1 John 4:12) –
- In gratitude for grace (Rom 12:1) –
- For the glory of God (1 Cor 6:19-20) –
- The character of God (Lev 11:44) –
- The work of God (Exo 20:2-3) –
- To please God (Heb 13:16) –
- To avoid the devil's snares (Eph 4:26-27) –
- For an eternal reward (1 Tim 6:18-19) –
- Because Christ has all authority (Matt 28:18-20) –
- Love for Christ (John 14:15) –
- Fullness of joy (John 15:10-11) –
- To experience God's favor (Prov 12:2) –
- Our union with Christ (Rom 6:5-6) –

How does this great variety of motivations reinforce the truth of 1 John 5:3?

For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.