

Description: God's Power to Overcome Sin Grace through Faith, Not Law – Week 34 If you have not already open a Bible back to Romans chapter 9. We're very that you're here. We're at this at the half way point of our study, a little more than half way by the time we are done with this particular lesson. I want to take just a moment to recap with you of course where we have been. We began in week 1 talking about our bad news, we know what we ought to do but we don't do it. And we know that we should not do certain things but we do it anyway and that is sin that separates us from God, causes this divide between us that we cannot bridge on our own. But Paul says in Romans 7:25, "Thanks be to God", God has provided good news. God has provided a way and He has clearly communicated that His grace is sufficient for us, not only to save us in the end but, to empower us, and inspire us, and strengthen us to live life in the way that He would have us to live. Of course that came with great price to God and specifically to Jesus the Christ in Romans 5. We move from there to really get into some very practical notes. We spent some time in Titus 2, week 5 noticing that grace not only has to do with where I go after I die, but grace trains us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts...
