

Journaling Questions – January 2014

What desires have created your life?

What desires would you like to have so as to create a new life now?

How willing are you to make the awareness examen of desire a regular spiritual practice? Why or why not?

What might you ask of God to draw you more deeply into the sacred pause?