

January - How seriously have you taken the work of examination of your desires and requesting the grace for transformation?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

February - How seriously have you taken the work of listening to your body and identifying your intense reactions to find your projections?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

March - How seriously have you desired to forgive and to be forgiven

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

April - How seriously have you taken the work of identifying your attachments/temptations so as to surrender them?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

May - How seriously have you reached out to touch and be touched in your presence with others?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

June - Have you seriously asked the Lord to heal your thinking and to give you the mind of Christ as seen in the beatitudes?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

July - How seriously have you reflected on your spiritual distortions and asked Jesus to give you the grace to put on the mind of Christ?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

August - How seriously have you taken the work of listening in silence as part of your spiritual practice?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

September - How seriously have you taken the work of listening to your inner child and identifying your reactions to understand your childlike perceptions?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?

October - How is your openness to growing in friendship with Jesus foundational to sharing or serving others in his name?

How has it changed you and your relationship with Jesus?

How have you shared this growth with others?