

Description: God's Power to Overcome Sin Being God's Grace in the World – Week 39

Ephesians 2 is where we are going to be in just a moment. One more time, just a very brief recap of where we have been throughout this quarter. We began week 1 with our bad news and we countered that, followed the scriptural flow to appreciate God's good news. And we grew in our appreciation of how the grace of God is sufficient for the difficulties that we experience in life. But that came at a great cost, the cost of God's only begotten son. We grew to listen to the call to rely on the grace of God today, we emphasized in more than one way throughout this quarter that grace is not something simply that we're waiting for in the future, as if we do our best, we try our hardest and then God's grace is just something that's going to kind of bridge the future gap between our frailties and necessary judgment that is going to happen before the throne. Of course, grace has to do with the future but, we are told as God's children to willingly rely on the grace of God today. That leads us to several not this but these statements, not my righteousness but the righteousness of God, not righteousness and justification through law but by grace through faith, not my goodness but the goodness of Christ, and if that is true then one of the most important things for me to do is to surrender...
