

Seatbelts

Note

Newton`s second law states that objects will stay still or move with a constant speed unless an unbalanced force acts on it.

Objects that are moving will continue moving until a force acts on it to stop it or change its speed

When a car stops suddenly, the driver and passengers will continue moving forward at the same speed as the car before the crash until a force acts on them to stop them moving.