

Living As If It All Belongs To God

Introduction:

- A. If you were asked to define life's most basic reality, how would you answer?
- B. Here's one worthy attempt:

God is the _____ of all things, we are simply his _____.

I. What is stewardship, and why is ownership foundational to it?

- A. We hear about "stewardship" in a variety of contexts (environmental, American dream, etc.)
- B. The foundational meaning of stewardship is not found in secular culture, but in God's word.
  - 1. A steward — someone an owner _____ with the management of his assets.
  - 2. Therefore, there can be no real understanding of stewardship until there is an accurate awareness of _____.
  - 3. The steward cannot do his job well without clearly grasping who _____—and who does not _____—what is entrusted to his care.

II. Is God really the owner of it all?

- A. From beginning to end, Scripture emphasizes God's ownership of _____.

- B. Even more, God grants us our _____ and rules as _____ over all.
